Hospital Hospitality House Announces New Members to the Board of Directors

Kalamazoo, Michigan – Hospital Hospitality House of Southwest Michigan is pleased to announce the appointment of six new members to its Board of Directors: Kerri Carpenter, Senior Sourcing Manager, Stryker Corporation; Ryan Horn, Vice President of Revenue Cycle and Payer Contracting, Bronson Healthcare Group; Robin Lovely, Director – Practice Operations, Ascension Medical Group; Barney Naylor, President & CEO, Naylor Landscape Management; Sally Ossewaarde, Nurse Manager – Trauma, Ascension Borgess Hospital; and Bridget Vandebussche, Executive Director, West Michigan Cancer Center.

The mission of Hospitality House is to provide a no-cost, homelike, and supportive place to stay for individuals and families in medical crisis. The agency has two facilities in Kalamazoo: one near Ascension Borgess Hospital and the other near Bronson Methodist Hospital. Board members volunteer their time to help sustain and advance the mission of Hospitality House by serving on committees focused on fundraising, finance, and governance.

“We are honored to welcome these talented individuals to our team,” said Board Chairperson Nick White. “As we set our sights on increasing our capacity to serve more people in need, this group brings a diverse array of skills and passion to an enthused and engaged Board of Directors.”

“I am so excited to be a part of such a great team and organization,” said incoming board member Bridget Vandebussche. “I am humbled at the opportunity to serve, as the mission and vision of Hospitality House are very near and dear to my heart!”

Founded in 1985 by the Junior League of Kalamazoo, Hospital Hospitality House has hosted over 40,000 guests since its inception and provided nearly 250,000 nights of rest.
